Continuing the Career Dreams of America's DREAMers

Member	Wells Fargo National Bank West	JobPath helps underserved adults in Tucson emerge out of poverty by providing financial, emotional, and social support leading to a viable career path and increased earnings. This project will focus on Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals recipients, or DREAMers at Pima Community College, who are no longer eligible for in-state college tuition or federal financial aid. Tuition has essentially tripled for DREAMers and enrollment has decreased by over 50% because of the rules change. At the time of application, the sponsor supported 14 DREAMers who were at risk of dropping out of college due to the increased financial burden. AHEAD funds will be used to ensure these students stay in college and continue towards a strong career path in fields such as healthcare and technology. The grant will be used to provide direct financial assistance to students and to support staffing.

Supporting Resilience in Coal-Impacted Tribal Communities

Member	State Bank of Arizona	Red Feather partners with the Navajo Nation and the Hopi Tribe in Arizona to provide sustainable solutions to housing needs in their tribal communities. Through various workshops and outreach, the sponsor noticed that many very low-income families living in substandard housing use wood and coal to heat their homes, and consequently suffer much higher rates of asthma than other populations. A local coal mine recently closed, eliminating a free source of coal. Many families are switching to wood for heating, but there are safety risks due to improper burning methods and inadequate cleaning of chimneys. This project will help the sponsor deliver four workshops on healthy heating to 48 families and broadcast public service announcements on these issues. The project will also have a workforce development component, training local professionals to install, inspect, repair, and clean wood and coal stoves and share information on solar alternatives. The grant will fund staff salaries, curriculum development, and production of instructional supplies for the workshops.

Turlock Gospel Mission Training and Labor Source

Member	Oak Valley Community Bank
Sponsor	Turlock Gospel Mission
Location	Turlock, CA
Project Type	Job Training
Grant Awarded	$35,000

Turlock Gospel Mission helps thousands of homeless and hurting individuals and families in the Central Valley by providing food, shelter, and referral services. Many of the Mission's homeless clients face significant barriers to employment, including long-term unemployment status, lack of marketable skills, and lack of the soft skills necessary to be a successful employee. The project will create a day-labor program that will work with local businesses to train individuals experiencing homelessness to fulfill short-term and one-day assignments that allow them to earn market-rate pay. To prepare participants to work in different aspects of the culinary industry, job training will be delivered to 25-40 participants both in a classroom setting and at a commercial kitchen. Graduates will receive a culinary training certificate and job placement assistance, along with two sets of chef's uniforms and safety shoes and a professional chef's knife.

The grant will fund staffing, purchase of kitchen equipment, curriculum development, participant incentives, and marketing expenses.

Veterans Employment Program

Member	MUFG Union Bank
Sponsor	Interfaith Community Services
Location	Oceanside, CA
Project Type	Job Training
Grant Awarded	$20,000

Interfaith, in partnership with a diverse set of faith communities, is one of the most comprehensive social service agencies in North San Diego County. Services provide both a short-term safety net and long-term empowerment for low-income and vulnerable residents. Their geographic service region includes many veterans experiencing homelessness and/or living with a disability, both of which are barriers to employment. This project will provide case management, employment training, and housing resources tailored for specific types of veterans: those who recently separated from service; homeless women veterans and veterans with children, and homeless veterans.

The grant will fund staffing and training costs.

WISER Women's Economic Support Program

Member	Beneficial State Bank	Los Angeles Metropolitan Churches is a collaborative of small- to medium-size African-American congregations working together for community change in the City of Los Angeles. The collaborative focuses on economic development, education, and public health challenges that result from mass incarceration, based on a theory that the church is an "incubator hub" and neutral forum where community leaders can develop solutions. This project will expand existing services to address the growing homelessness crisis with a pilot homelessness prevention program targeted to African-American women age 50 and over. The trauma-informed program will offer financial education, group support, prayer circles, and access to other social services through L.A.'s coordinated entry system. The grant will pay for consultants to pilot the program, food and supplies for group meetings, and for assisting clients with transportation and childcare.

Affordable Housing Development Equity Assessment

Member	Luther Burbank Savings	The Tubbs and Nuns fires in October 2017 destroyed almost 8,000 structures in Sonoma County and displaced countless lower-income households, including many Latino families. The Sonoma County Community Development Commission is the County's public housing authority and lead agency for programs dedicated to creating a range of housing solutions for homeless residents. This project will support redevelopment in the aftermath of the wildfires. The Commission will create a countywide interactive affordable housing development map to be included in Sonoma County's 2020 General Plan update. The map and General Plan will highlight past housing disparities and historic trends of racial segregation to ensure that future housing development is strategically placed in high opportunity areas, especially for marginalized populations. The Commission will also reach out directly to low-income Latino households that were disproportionately impacted by the wildfires to promote homeownership opportunities. The grant will pay for consultants, staff, program supplies, marketing, community outreach, and website development.

Yuba County Disaster Mitigation Planning

Member	Mechanics Bank	Yuba-Sutter Economic Development Corporation (YSEDC) is a federally-recognized Economic Development District supporting economic development projects in Yuba and Sutter counties in Northern California. They are partnering with Yuba County to update a disaster mitigation plan, which is mandated by the federal government and was last updated in 2016. The region has experienced a myriad of natural disasters over the last 50 years, including conditions in February 2017 that made the possibility of failure for the main and emergency spillways at the Oroville dam clear. That event was followed by the Cascade Fire, which destroyed over 260 structures in October 2017. The goal of the plan is to prevent personal injury, loss of life, and damage to property and the environment, and to promote public awareness and understanding of natural disasters. When complete, it will enhance the ability of Yuba County to respond to hazards that might impact people, property, and the environment. The grant will fund a consultant to manage the plan update process and staff for support.
